

This workforce solution was funded by a grant awarded under Workforce Innovation in Regional Economic Development (WIRED) as implemented by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration. The solution was created by the grantee and does not necessarily reflect the official position of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership. This solution is copyrighted by the institution that created it. Internal use by an organization and/or personal use by an individual for non-commercial purposes is permissible. All other uses require the prior authorization of the copyright owner.

Key Working Group Questions

- Assuming that breakout topic is an appropriate priority for WIRED, how would this title be reworded as a goal statement to accurately reflect the focus of this area within the STEMCAP project?
- What are the key components of this strategy?
- What criteria, guidelines or principles could WIRED use in order to identify existing or emerging best practices and successful strategies?

Key Working Group Questions

- What measures or outcomes could be used to evaluate success within this priority area?
- How would we achieve these outcomes?
- Assuming you/your organizations remain willing to continue serving on this working group, what other individuals or groups should be recruited before the next meeting to enhance and assure success of our efforts?
- (Optional) What is the best way to disseminate information to key stakeholders for this strategy?