

U. S. Department of Labor
California Innovation Corridor
Supplier Transformation Annual Forum
October 24, 2007
www.innovatecalifornia.net

Raytheon

Raytheon Space and Airborne Systems
2000 El Segundo Blvd., El Segundo CA

Theme: Collaboration and Innovation for a globally competitive aerospace supply chain

Industry - Purpose, Outlook, Requirements, Realities, Successes, and Resources

Who will attend? Who should attend?

Aerospace suppliers – all tiers

Prime contractors/OEMs/Systems Integrators/Government agencies

Supply Chain Management professionals

Quality Assurance, Manufacturing and Production professionals

Engineering and Design professionals

Economic Development entities and Workforce Development entities

Academic and Research institutions, Training Providers

Elected officials and staff

Due to Raytheon onsite security requirements, registration is limited to U.S. citizens and permanent legal residents. Please bring a valid current government issued form of identification with you to the event.

Who will be there? Here are a few participants

University of Southern California

Western Research Application Center (WESRAC)

 California State University, Los Angeles
5151 State University Drive • Los Angeles • CA 90032 • (323) 343-3000 